DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:

On page 10 of the specification, the recitation of an adjusting screw 29 is confusing as reference number 29 is shown as an internal part or bushing member on fig. 4 of the drawings.

The reference characters "9" and "30" have both been used to designate "stops".

Appropriate correction is required.

Drawings

2. The drawings are objected to because:

Reference number 32 in Fig. 4 of the drawings is not in the specification.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New

Art Unit: 3617

Sheet” pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

3. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the “an adjusting nut (29), turning of which causes an axial displacement of the fork head (25)” in claims 11-17 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). Reference number 29 is shown as an internal part or bushing member on fig. 4 of the drawings. No new matter should be entered.

Also, the recitation of “the driver, in a direction of a displacement stroke ..., and cooperates with nut (9) guided in a rotationally fast manner to adjust idle strokes” in claim 3 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s) since the specification uses reference number 9 to designate stops. No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as “amended.” If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

4. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(4) because reference characters "9" and "30" have both been used to designate stops. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

5. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(4) because reference character "9" has been used to designate both nuts and stops in claims 3, 7 and in the specification. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

6. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

7. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 recites the limitation "the axial direction being interposed" in line 7. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. It is unclear as to what applicant is referring to by the axial direction being interposed.

In claim 2, line 3, the phrase "two mutually crossing axes different from an axis of a displacement stroke" is confusing as it is unclear which particular structure applicant is referring to by the two different axes as well as the axis of a displacement stroke.

In claim 3, lines 2-4, the phrase "the driver ... cooperates with nut (9) guided in a rotationally fast manner to adjust idle strokes" is confusing as it unclear what particular structure applicant is referring to by "the driver ... cooperating with nuts (9) guided in a rotationally fast manner to adjust idle strokes” since the specification has used reference number 9 to designate stops. Similar confusing term exists in claim 7.

In claim 5, line 7, the phrase “an adjusting nut (29), turning of which causes an axial displacement of the fork head” is confusing as fig. 4 of the drawing shows reference number 29 to be an internal bearing or bushing which interface with stop member 30 for support of the fork head shaft. Similar confusing term exists in claims 11-17.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

8. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

9. Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Callegari et al (US 5,292,091).

Callegari et al disclose a switch actuator for movable frogs comprising at least one cylinder piston unit (12”, 212”) having a defined preset piston stroke, wherein the cylinder piston unit is connected with bearings (9’) capable of being displaced in the axial direction of the piston stroke, which bearings are connected with a stationary substructure for the adjustment of a defined center position of the piston stroke and a driver (110 or 52) for the movable frog (C), and the driver for the movable frog (C) is coupled with the cylinder piston unit with stops (21, 21’) displaceable in the axial direction being interposed, see col 7, lines 57-68, col 8, lines 1-14.

Allowable Subject Matter

Art Unit: 3617

10. Claims 3-20 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

11. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure:

Arledge, Von Hayn et al, Stiles are cited to show related switch mechanism comprising adjustable bars.

Durchslag et al, Fisher, Schnedl and Bonfigli are cited to show related switch system comprising cylinder piston units with displaceable bearings.
